

Dear friends

This weekend is certainly not an ordinary weekend. Besides being a long weekend with Friday being a holiday, some of us have been coming to church every day since Thursday. So, we can say that this weekend is a very spiritual weekend, a very churchy weekend.

As we look at the gospel accounts over this weekend, we heard of women going to the tomb where Jesus was buried, and then there was an earthquake and an angel came and rolled away the stone and sat on it. The impression that the women had was that someone had taken the body of Jesus out of the tomb. And just when the women were wondering what had happened, Jesus appeared to them. Yes, Jesus is alive! Or to be more exact, Jesus rose from the dead.

This weekend is not an ordinary weekend for 10 people in our parish. This evening they are here among us dressed in white, looking like the angel who rolled away the stone. They are going to profess their faith in God and they are going to do it in our presence and then they will receive the Sacrament of Baptism. For seven months, they have taken the journey of faith and they have "seen" Jesus. They don't have the feet of Jesus to clasp but we will have to offer our hands and our hearts to them to help them continue their journey so that together we will experience the Risen Christ and grow in faith.

That is our commitment to them as we ourselves renew our baptismal promises. And that is also our commitment to Jesus as we renew our baptismal promises.

The stone covering the tomb of sin and death is once again removed so that the Risen Christ can bring us forgiveness and healing. The Risen Christ wants to empower us to go forth and remove the stones covering the tomb of sin and death so that the light of the Risen Christ can shine in and bring about new life for those who are searching for the truth and the real meaning of life.

This is a weekend of faith, hope and love. It is with faith, hope and love that the stones of sin and evil, the stones of selfishness and greed, the stones of doubt and pessimism will be removed. Yes, there are stones to be removed and the Risen Christ is sending us out to do that. That is what the profession of faith and the renewal of baptismal promises are about. And it is not just for this weekend. It will be for every day.

On behalf of Fr. Pietro Paolo, Fr. Fady and the parish office staff I wish you all a Happy Easter and may God bless your families during this Easter Season.

Fr. George

DEACON KEVIN GRANDY

On Sunday April 8th after all the Masses of 7:45 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 9:00 a.m. and 12 Noon, we invite everyone to come in to the parish hall to say farewell to Deacon Kevin Grandy as he is relocating to Nova Scotia.

After his long association with Transfiguration of Our Lord Parish he will be sadly missed.

May God continue to bless Deacon Kevin & his family.

Living the Gospel by evangelizing our faith in the greater world

Gia Lao Parish resides in the mountainous Diocese of Xuan Loc in Vietnam.

Its parishioners, mostly poor, work on the hillside farms. The Pastoral Mission Fund, with the support of ShareLife, provided a one-time grant so the parish could acquire resources it could not otherwise provide. This includes bibles and hymnals, along with training for 60 catechists, who lead marriage preparation and catechism classes. With your support, Gia Lao is bringing faith to a community in the greater world.

April 22 is the next ShareLife Sunday.
Please give generously
