

Dear Friends,

As we all know, Fr. Sujan Joseph is transferring from Transfiguration Parish to St Mary's Parish on Adelaide Street on the 29th of June 2017.

On behalf of Transfiguration of Our Lord Parish Community I would like to thank Fr. Sujan for his hard work and tremendous help in the parish for last three and a half years. He has been faithful in his service to God, the church and community. He will be missed. It is our prayer and hope that wherever he goes and whatever he does that God will be with him and guide his footsteps, and that he will be a blessing. We accept this move to the new parish as a common and regular practice in our Catholic Church that priests move within their diocese to serve another parish after a set amount of time. A little change, a little pain, but eventually a transition considered beneficial for the priest and parish alike. It is a thoughtful and orderly process that is classic for Catholics. Yet, I must confess that Fr. Sujan's departure will be missed by all of us.

Once again, I thank Fr. Sujan for all his dedication and hard work in Transfiguration Church and I wish him all the best for his ministry in St. Mary's Church as an associate pastor.

We welcome Fr. Pietro Paolo Gennuso as the new Associate Pastor of Trans Church who will be joining us on June 29th, 2017.
